Funded by Citizenship and Immigration Canada, the Labour Market Access (LMA) department offers a variety of programs related to the Canadian Labour Market. Job Search Workshops program offers pre-employment training to newcomers; Labour Market Information program provides newcomers with information and referral related to careers, education, job leads and employment; and Business Development Advisory program provides information to clients who need assistance with starting a business.

Labour Market Information Specialists (LMI) will assist you in:

- Providing information and assistance to newcomers and newcomer youth regarding the Canadian and local labour market
- Delivering employment related information via workshops, seminars, events and information sessions
- Providing employment opportunities such as job leads from employers

Job Search Workshops (JSW) Facilitators will assist you in:

- Becoming “Job Ready” in a competitive job market
- Preparing a professional targeted resume and cover letter
- Discovering new job search and networking skills

Business Development Advisors (BDA) will assist you in:

- Providing assistance and support to newcomers to Canada looking to establish their own business
- Assisting in the development of a business model and business plan based on your business idea

All of our programs and services including childcare are available at no cost to eligible clients
